

Do not change the "DO NOT CALL" law. We like it just the way it is. It is nice not being interrupted in what we are doing to answer the phone and say, "Do not call here again as I do not buy over the phone." It would be nice if you made it stricter by adding the political calls to this list as that was terrible this past year.